ADAMH 2nd Annual Faith Leaders Symposium - FREE Self Care and More!

- 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.: Self Care for Senior Faith Leaders
- 1:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.: Tools and Resources for Ministry and Lay Leaders
- WHEN: Tuesday, March 13, 2018
- WHERE: Columbus Foundation, 1234 E. Broad Street, 43203

The first half of the day (8:30 a.m. -12:30 p.m.) is designed exclusively and specifically for senior and executive level faith leaders. This year, we welcome Chris Adams, Ph.D., Executive Director of the Azusa Pacific University Center for Vocational Ministry. Based on his extensive experience working with faith leaders, Adams will offer strategies that can be used to counter the pressures and stresses of executive leadership.

Adams' background as a faith leader and clinical psychologist allows him unique insights into this sacred and challenging calling. He also conducts research in clergy health and well-being, and is a consultant to a number of denominations and seminaries in the areas of clergy candidate assessment, clergy health and pastoral leadership formation.

The second half of the day (1:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.) is designed for health and outreach ministry and lay leaders. Our goal is to provide attendees with mental health and substance abuse information as well as resources that can provide support when helping your congregation and community. Senior and executive level faith leaders are welcome to stay throughout the day. We encourage you to invite the health and outreach ministry and lay leaders who serve in your organization.
