

COMMUNICATION WORKERS UNION

2019 CWU Labour Party Delegation Meeting

Shelley Suite, Jury's Inn (Waterfront) Hotel, Brighton
Monday 23rd September 2019, 8.30am

PRESENT: Karen Rose, Tony Kearns (SDGS) , Kye Dudd, Katie Dunning, Kate Hudson, Steve Jones, Brian Kenny, Joyce Stevenson, Alan Tate, Kate Walsh, Mark Walsh, Paul Braithwaite, John Carson, Nick Darbyshire, Angela Teeling

IN ATTENDANCE: Tracey Fussey, Maria Exall, Lionel Sampson, Andrew Towers, Janina Dunn and Dawn Lynch

APOLOGIES: Dave Ward (General Secretary), Andy Kerr (Deputy General Secretary, T&FSE), Terry Pullinger (Deputy General Secretary Postal), Mick Kavanagh, Carl Maden, Ken Woolley, Bill Taylor

1. CONFERENCE ARRANGMENTS COMMITTEE (CAC) REPORT NO.3

CAC Report No.3 issued that morning, contained the day's agenda and the result of the Card Votes (in Appendix 2 on page 31).

2. COMPOSITE MOTIONS

There were ten Composite Motions as listed below to be debated today:

Composite Motion 6 – Industrial Strategy	Support
Composite Motion 7 – Insourcing	Support
Composite Motion 8 – Working Hours	Support
Composite Motion 9 – Employments Rights	Support
Composite Motion 10 – Royal Mail	Support
Composite Motion 11 – Yemen	Support
Composite Motion 12 – Ethical Foreign Policy	Support
Composite Motion 13 – Brexit	Oppose
Composite Motion 14 – Brexit	Support
Composite Motion from Women's Conference – Universal Credit and Employment Support	Support

The delegation agreed to support the composite motions except composite motion 13 in which the delegation agreed to oppose.

3. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Deputy General Secretary updated the delegation regarding the reference backs from yesterday's (Sunday 22nd Sept) conference. The Head of Political Strategy informed the delegation that on page 46, there is a written statement from Brighton Pavilion which will be heard this morning (Monday 23rd Sept).

The Deputy General Secretary also reminded the delegation to vote for Katrina Murray in the Disabled Members Representative election.

The meeting concluded at 9.15am.