

COMMUNICATION WORKERS UNION

2019 CWU Labour Party Delegation Meeting

Shelley Suite, Jury's Inn (Waterfront) Hotel, Brighton
Wednesday 25th September 2019, 8am

PRESENT: Dave Ward (General Secretary), Karen Rose, Tony Kearns (SDGS), Kye Dudd, Katie Dunning, Steve Jones, Brian Kenny, Joyce Stevenson, Alan Tate, Kate Walsh, Mark Walsh, Paul Braithwaite, John Carson, Angela Teeling, Ken Woolley, Nick Darbyshire

IN ATTENDANCE: Bill Taylor, Andrew Towers, and Dawn Lynch

APOLOGIES: Andy Kerr (Deputy General Secretary, T&FSE), Terry Pullinger (Deputy General Secretary Postal), Mick Kavanagh, Carl Maden, Kate Hudson, Tracey Fussey, Maria Exall

1. CONFERENCE ARRANGMENTS COMMITTEE (CAC) REPORT NO.5

CAC Report No.5 issued that morning, contained the day's agenda.

2. COMPOSITE MOTIONS

There were two Composite Motions as listed below to be debated:

Composite Motion 20 – Immigration	Oppose
Composite Motion 22 – Mental Health	Support

The delegation agreed to support the composite motion 22 and oppose composite motion 20.

There were three motions considered by the delegation on 24th September on the 25th September agenda, these are listed below:

Composite Motion 21 – Local Authority Cuts	Support
Composite Motion 19 – Homelessness	Support
Composite Motion 23 – Housing	Support

The delegation agreed to support the Composite Motions

3. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The General Secretary thanked all of the delegation and staff for all their hard work and support during this year's Labour Party Conference. The National Vice President also added her thanks to everyone including Dawn and Janina for all their help behind the scene.

The meeting concluded at 9.40am.