

COMMUNICATION WORKERS UNION

2019 CWU Labour Party Delegation Meeting

Shelley Suite, Jury's Inn (Waterfront) Hotel, Brighton
Tuesday 24th September 2019, 8.30am

PRESENT: Dave Ward (General Secretary), Karen Rose, Tony Kearns (SDGS) , Kye Dudd, Katie Dunning, Kate Hudson, Steve Jones, Brian Kenny, Joyce Stevenson, Alan Tate, Kate Walsh, Mark Walsh, Paul Braithwaite, John Carson, Angela Teeling, Ken Woolley, Carl Maden

IN ATTENDANCE: Tracey Fussey, Maria Exall, Bill Taylor, Andrew Towers, and Dawn Lynch

APOLOGIES: Andy Kerr (Deputy General Secretary, T&FSE), Terry Pullinger (Deputy General Secretary Postal), Mick Kavanagh, Nick Darbyshire

1. CONFERENCE ARRANGMENTS COMMITTEE (CAC) REPORT NO.4

CAC Report No.4 issued that morning, contained the day's agenda and the result of the CAC Disabled Members Representative (in Appendix 2 on page 28) in which Katrina Murray was elected.

2. COMPOSITE MOTIONS

There were two Emergency Motions as listed below to be debated today:

Emergency Motion – Amazon Fire	Support
Emergency Motion – Kashmir	Support

The delegation agreed to support both the Emergency Motions.

There were seven Composite Motions as listed below to be debated today:

Composite Motion 15 – Corporate Governance	Support
Composite Motion 18 – High Streets	Support
Composite Motion 17 – Labour's Socialist Green New Deal	Support
Composite Motion 16 – Green New Deal	Oppose
Composite Motion 21 – Local Authority Cuts	Support
Composite Motion 19 – Homelessness	Support
Composite Motion 23 – Housing	Support

The delegation agreed to support the composite motions except composite motion 16 in which the delegation agreed to oppose.

3. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Deputy General Secretary informed the delegation of the reference backs that will be heard in today's (Tuesday 24th Sept) conference. Alan Tate proposed that the delegation opposed the 1st reference back re: Environment, Energy and Culture and this was agreed.

The National Vice Chair reminded the delegation about the Justice for Columbia Fringe scheduled for this evening.

The meeting concluded at 9.15am.