Under pressure? Heat investments amidst policy uncertainty

Pinsent Masons LLP, 30 Crown Place, London EC2A 4ES

Join us on 20 November for a practical conference combining know-how, innovation and insight to support developers, suppliers, industrial and commercial customers, funders and consultants to understand what lies ahead for industrial and business heat.

The Association for Decentralised Energy is once again teaming up with Pinsent Masons to bring you what the future holds for industrial and commercial energy.

This is the leading industry event to network, and learn about the latest best practice for commercial and industrial customers, including combined heat and power solutions. The event will appeal to stakeholders from local authorities, government, academics, consultants and industry.
